Contact: Lisa (founder) or Richard (director)

SPECIALIZATION: Subject Expertise, Test Prep and Mentoring

Find a Mentor in our Skilled Instructors: IVY's tutors connect with students on a level that adults and parents are not always able to access. Our Ivy League and top tier university tutors are experts in their fields and are able to clearly present and convey complicated information. College bound students also profit from the experiences their tutors are able to share with them as mentors. We match students with tutors by weighing personality, skill level and many other factors, including hobbies and interests.

Improve Your Scores with Test Prep: We have a data-driven and highly personalized approach to test prep that won't break the bank. SAT, ACT, ISEE, SSAT, and SHSAT students start by taking diagnostic exams enabling tutors to pinpoint the student's weaker areas and teach the tricks and strategies needed to beat the test! Once the material has been mastered, students continue to take mock exams and are provided with detailed reporting so tutors can create a personalized and efficient program that gives students their maximum score increase.

Gain Confidence in School Subjects: Our goal is to help each student find the joy in learning. We've all encountered difficult subject matter that left us wanting to give up. IVY's mission is to help students struggling with difficult subjects by connecting them to tutors who are so passionate about their fields that it's contagious. Whether it's a difficult to understand teacher, an unfortunate textbook or a learning difference, we can help you find your New York City tutor in math, biology, chemistry, Spanish, French and much more.

800-381-3266

175 Varick Street, Suite 316

SPECIALIZATION - Academic Tutoring, Test Prep, High School and College Applications Advisory

Prestige Prep is one of NYC's leading supplemental educational services and tutoring centers, with a focus on creating better learners. We have been teaching and mentoring students on their educational goals, academic needs, and standardized tests since 2002. In academic subjects, we guide our students to adopt more efficient methods of learning, studying, and preparing for class. The goal of standardized-test prep is to prepare them for every facet of their exam, while lessening anxiety, increasing stamina and building emotional strength. Increasingly, we have been advising students on both High School and College admissions. Our team of experts has expanded so that we can help more teens identify their unique fit at the right school. The process covers the "A-to-Z" of the application process, from selecting initial lists of programs and influencing scholastic "resumes" to assisting with the interview process.

In addition to academics, our sister company, Dugmah, focuses on Jewish learning. Founded in 2002, Dugmah provides Jewish learning, lifecycle event support, and mentorship. Whether preparing for a Bar or Bat Mitzvah, engaging in broad Jewish learning, or planning a trip to Israel, we are your source. Our individualized and intimate programs deliver a unique Jewish educational experience for children, adults, and families. We empower our learners to connect with Judaism through experiences customized to their personal learning styles and traditions. Trained and experienced in informal Jewish education, our mentors are role models who live by the values they teach. Taught and officiated 450+ Bar and Bat Mitzvahs, and led in excess of 18,000 classes.

SPECIALIZATION: Writing

Could your child use a relatable coach with whom to build writing skills or navigate school papers? Does your student need expertise with writing a distinctive admission essay? The Varsity Pen (TVP) is a targeted service crafted from years of experience with the writing needs of NYC families. Unlike similar services, its expertise is not diluted by claims of specialization in multiple disciplines.

TVP is a 'full-service essay bar' developed by Nadine Gorelik (Columbia University MFA, Nonfiction Writing). It was founded on the belief that clear writing—and the critical thinking underpinning it—are skills that anyone can master. Nadine's diverse experience with children and her training as a writer yield effective strategies for teaching students how to produce compelling writing.

All lessons are customized to fit each individual's skill level, interests and learning style. TVP addresses all stages of writing concerns, from idea development to syntax and punctuation. Nadine's chief priority is to ensure sessions are engaging by using exercises relevant to your child's interests and daily life.

West End Tutors

We are a team of experienced tutors conveniently located on the Upper West Side in Manhattan. We provide one-on-one and small-group tutoring in addition to running prep courses for New York State exams, high school entrance exams, and Regents exams. We tutor students from elementary school to grad school in virtually every academic subject, and specialize in admissions consulting and test prep for New York City middle and high schools.

Our philosophy in test prep is to provide our students with the tools to ace their exams by building and reinforcing foundations that will support them throughout their academic careers.

We tutor approximately 30% of the 7th and 8th graders at MS54, and we know the MS54 and MS54 Honors curriculum. We ran SHSAT prep courses at MS54 for several years, and over 85% of our MS54 students are accepted into specialized high schools every year, many of them placing into Stuyvesant, Bronx Science, and Lehman. We also prep for the ISEE, SSAT, TACHS, HSPT, and Bard entrance exam, with extremely high placement rates for all five tests.
